Luxury in Motion

C'è un momento, tra un'idea e una decisione, in cui tutto scorre. È lì che nasce Flow.

Un sistema direzionale che accompagna il gesto, sostiene la postura, eleva lo sguardo. Perché il vero lusso è potersi muovere, restando se stessi.

EN — There is a moment, between an idea and a decision, when everything flows. That is where Flow comes from. An executive system that follows your movements, supports your posture and raises your gaze. Because true luxury is being able to move, while remaining yourself.

FR — Il y a un moment, entre une idée et une décision, où tout coule de source. C'est là que naît Flow. Un système directionnel qui accompagne le geste, soutient la posture, élève le regard. Car le vrai luxe, c'est de pouvoir bouger tout en restant soi-même.

Flow è una collezione direzionale che interpreta il prestigio con la naturalezza della discrezione.

Si distingue per un'estetica misurata, fatta di volumi pieni, angoli morbidi e materiali che invitano al tatto. Pelle naturale e legno pregiato si incontrano in un dialogo armonioso, dove la materia racconta una nuova idea di comfort direzionale. La scrivania — elevabile in altezza — interpreta il movimento come valore progettuale, trasformando la postura in scelta e il gesto in stile.

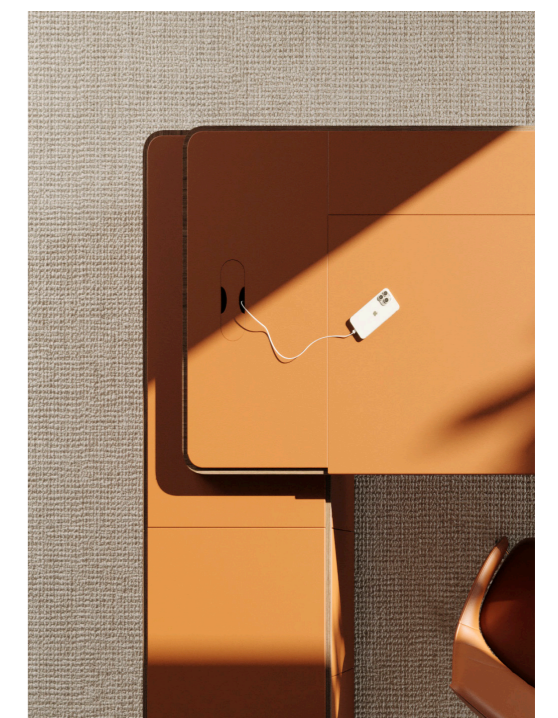

Completano la collezione madie, consolle, tavoli riunione e tavoli caffè, tutti accomunati da un linguaggio fluido, coerente, in cui eleganza e funzionalità si fondono con naturalezza.

EN — Flow is an executive collection that embodies prestige with the effortless elegance of discretion. It features a refined aesthetic, defined by generous volumes, softened edges, and materials that invite touch. Natural leather and fine wood meet in a harmonious dialogue, where the essence of matter conveys a new interpretation of executive comfort. The adjustable desk embraces movement as a design value, transforming posture into personal choice and gesture into a statement of style. The collection is completed by sideboards, meeting tables, and coffee tables, all sharing a fluid, consistent design language where elegance and functionality blend with natural ease.

FR — Flow est une collection directionnelle qui incarne le prestige avec l'élégance subtile de la discrétion. Elle se distingue par une esthétique maîtrisée, faite de volumes pleins, d'angles adoucis et de matériaux qui invitent au toucher. Le cuir naturel et le bois noble se rencontrent dans un dialogue harmonieux, où la matière incarne une nouvelle idée du confort directionnel. Le bureau, réglable en hauteur, interprète le mouvement comme une valeur de projet, transformant la posture en choix et le geste en expression de style. La collection se complète de buffets, de tables de réunion et de tables basses, unies par un langage fluide et cohérent, où élégance et fonctionnalité se fondent avec naturel.

An adjustable Desk, the elegant centerpiece of the executive office.

La scrivania Flow unisce design essenziale e funzionalità sofisticata, incarnando lusso discreto e armonia delle proporzioni. Le sue forme semplici e proporzionate e il raffinato connubio di pelle e legno creano un arredo senza tempo, simbolo di stile e prestigio.

Sorretta da una gamba in pelle dalle linee morbide e da un mobile di servizio canalizzato con ante e cassetti rivestiti in pelle, coniuga funzionalità ed estetica in modo naturale. Il piano in legno leggermente stondato, interamente rivestito in pelle e l'elegante passacavo anch'esso rivestito, esprimono cura sartoriale e attenzione al dettaglio.

EN — Flow desk combines essential design and sophisticated functionality, embodying discreet luxury and harmonious proportions. Supported on one side by a softly contoured leather leg and on the other by a service unit with integrated channels, featuring doors and drawers fully upholstered in leather, the desk naturally blends functionality and aesthetics. The slightly rounded wooden top, entirely upholstered in leather, together with the elegant leather-covered cable management system, express bespoke craftsmanship and meticulous attention to detail.

Le plateau en bois légèrement arrondi, entièrement habillé de cuir, ainsi que l'élégant passe-câbles également gainé de cuir, expriment un savoir-faire sur mesure et une attention méticuleuse aux détails.

Elegante nella sua essenza, la scrivania Flow trova un valore aggiunto nel sistema motorizzato di sollevamento, che le consente di adattarsi in altezza senza alterarne la raffinatezza e l'armonia.

Concepita per chi guida e decide, la scrivania Flow è un arredo iconico che unisce lusso discreto e tecnologia avanzata, pensata per interpretare con stile l'ufficio di prestigio contemporaneo.

EN — Elegant at its core, Flow desk gains an added value from its motorized lifting system, allowing it to adjust in height without compromising its refinement and harmony.
