Executive quality in design and comfort.

- Premium conference chair for the most demanding requirements in terms of comfort and design
- Stylish upholstery featuring perfectly coordinated, ergonomic cushion elements and all-round decorative stitching
- A functional highlight is provided by the synchronous mechanism with automatic weight adjustment that adapts to the individual for optimum movement support
- Lockable in three seat positions
- The controls and mechanism are beautifully integrated into the seat
- Versatile design options, including three different back heights and armrests in various versions
- Special design elements: leather perforation, contrasting decorative stitching in various colours and exclusive coating colours
- The optional perforated leather also improves air circulation
- Ideal for prestigious offices and conference rooms

Exclusivity, shaped to your vision.

Whether in a conference room or a high-end workspace, ray executive makes a clear statement of professionalism and impresses with ergonomic excellence and refined design. The perfectly coordinated cushions define its sculptural silhouette and ensure exceptional seating comfort. A key functional feature is the synchronous mechanism with automatic weight adjustment, which can also be individually fine-tuned for optimal support in motion.

With its wide range of surface finishes, fabrics, and leathers, this high-end swivel chair offers extensive design possibilities: monochrome, two-tone, or a mix of materials. The continuous decorative stitching highlights the craftsmanship and completes the concept—either tone-on-tone with the upholstery or as a deliberate contrast. ray executive is available in three backrest heights and equipped with various armrest options, allowing precise adaptation to different areas of use.
